

Portfolio Review Committee Application

The goal of the Portfolio of Model Upstream Programs is to be a comprehensive portfolio of outcomes-based and evidence-based prevention programs throughout Sonoma County. This Portfolio is important because it will expand community-wide capacity to identify, implement, and fund evidence-based prevention-focused programs. For more information about Upstream Investments and the Portfolio of Model Upstream Programs visit www.UpstreamInvestments.org.

The Portfolio Review Committee makes decisions about program placement on the Portfolio. The Committee is comprised of no less than 7 and no more than 15 members. Qualified individuals have demonstrated expertise related to evidence-based practice in program design, implementation and evaluation, and represent one of the following categories:

- Sonoma County Administrator's Office
- Sonoma County Health and Human Services Departments
- Sonoma County Criminal Justice Departments
- Organizations representing early childhood development services
- Education
- Local funding organizations
- Bay Area Universities of Colleges
- Community at Large

For a full description of the Portfolio Review Committee including the member duties, visit <http://www.upstreaminvestments.org/html/meetings.htm>

The Sonoma County Board of Supervisors invites qualified individuals to apply to serve on the Portfolio Review Committee. To apply, please complete this application in full, attach a resume and other information which may assist us in making our selection, and submit it to Upstream@schsd.org or 490 Mendocino Ave, Santa Rosa, CA 95401.
