| Health Action                                    | Jen Lewis presented information on The Portrait of Sonoma that will be released in April 2014. The   |  |   |
| and UpstreamInvestments                      | Portrait introduces a GDP for ordinary people. It evaluates the chances people have to live a freely chosen life of value by measuring three dimensions: a long and healthy life, access to knowledge and a decent standard of living. The resulting health, education and income indexes are combined to give geographic information about Sonoma County.   |  |   |
|  | <ul> <li>Discussion:</li> <li>We need to start with a Human Development model and find words that translate to the Traditional model. How are they interconnected?</li> <li>Physical environment is critical. Can it be injected into the report?</li> <li>This information needs to go to zoning, housing, city council, and other officials. We need involvement from more than social services providers.</li> <li>This information should be disseminated to schools.</li> <li>How can we give voices and faces to this data?</li> <li>How can we be prepared to offer recommendations to communities when the information is released?</li> </ul> |  |   |
| UpstreamProgressReport andNext Steps | Oscar summarized the past progress and next steps in the Upstream Progress Report and Next Steps that will be presented to the Board of Supervisors in January.  Motion to approve the report.  | Motion: SteveSecond: CarolYes: 18No: 0Abstain: 0 | Policy Committee members will send suggested changes to the Upstream staff by November  |
| PolicyCommitteeprocess review            | Angie summarized the Upstream Policy Initiative structure and operational structure. She presented an overview of the Ad Hoc and Policy Committee accomplishments. The committee broke into groups to answer four questions:  1. What is working well?  2. Is our membership comprehensive?  3. What do you need from the operational staff?  4. What is your vision for 2014 – 2016?  The following themes emerged:  Working well:  County leadership Collaboration between public agencies  Quality of staff support   | None   | 22, 2013.  Staff will include a more in-depth orientation and additional time to discuss critical questions on a future agenda. |
